

“It was such a treat to observe Scott Millman working with our veteran clients. He was so patient and fun – they really opened up as each lesson went on. Many of them had never swung a golf club and when they finally did it gave them a sense of accomplishment that was hard to believe. A very special Thank You to Scott and the Simple World of Golf for reaching out to help, heal and encourage those who have served our country!”

Volunteers of America Michigan

Emilie Rohrbach,
Director of Community Engagement